

DIPL.-GEOGR. WOLFRAM LANGE

LECTURER PROFILE

DIPL.-GEOGR. WOLFRAM LANGE

Wolfram Lange is currently working as a freelance consultant for projects of international cooperation for sustainable development, NGOs and governmental institutions in Brazil and holds a diploma in geography from the University of Cologne/Germany. His expertise is in urban and social geography as well as regional planning and natural resources management focusing on land use management in rural and urban areas and socio-spatial analysis, climate change and disaster risk reduction. He is specialist in applying Geographic Information Systems and empirical social research. He has been working at and cooperating with several universities in Germany, Brazil, Mozambique, Chile, Mexico and Indonesia.

---